

Global Health Track

OSU COM ~ Global Health Track provides international opportunities and perspectives for students interested in advancing health equity in rural and underserved areas locally and abroad. Students learn through direct experience with multidisciplinary and diverse healthcare leaders around the globe.

Global Opportunities

1st/2nd Year courses are Summer, Winter Break, and Spring Break

3rd/4th Year courses are November, February, June* Rotations: 5, 8, 12, 17, 20

Global Health Course Locations

- Belize
- Cambodia
- Greece
- Guatemala
- Malawi
- Mexico
- Nepal
- Peru
- Uganda
- many more...

Global Health interests and Research

- Tropical Medicine
- Pandemic Medicine
- Bioethics
- Infectious Disease
- OneHealth
- Hygiene, Water safety
- Environmental Health
- Women's Health
- Nutrition
- many more...

-Requires 3 courses for a minor in global health.

-Can be completed simultaneously with Rural or Tribal Track.

Contact John Mumey for more Info
john.mumey@okstate.edu